

Library News and Notes from Cheryl

I wonder how many of you are putting up Christmas decorations today? (By the way, I'm writing this on Friday, after Thanksgiving Day.) My Grandma would get VERY upset if anyone "started" Christmas before Thanksgiving! Thanksgiving was her favorite holiday, and she absolutely had a grateful heart! She had a little kitschy "Count your blessings" handmade doodad that hung on her front door and I remember when I went in one morning singing that hymn, she joined in and we finished it together. She was tickled pink, and so was I. A good memory, one that I'm THANKFUL for!

If you like Christmas books, I have a shelf of them here at the library. While they may be a little predictable, that may be just what our overwhelmed minds need during the holidays. We don't have Dish or Cable at home so I miss out on my favorite sappy Christmas movies (sad face for me, happy face for Brent). If anyone has any Hallmark type Christmas DVDs I would be more than happy to borrow them from you—kind of a reverse library service!

I'm hosting a Christmas Card Day on December 5th at the library. I have a lovely assortment of cards for you to send to your friends and loved ones—you know, the ones that EVERY YEAR you SAY you're going to get out on time but rarely do? The library will even pay for your stamps so you can get them in the mail that day! You spend a FREE, festive, enjoyable afternoon and your loved ones are surprised when they receive a blessing in their post box instead of a bill! Just don't forget to bring a list of names and addresses with you!

The Library is here to serve the public. Open Tuesdays and Fridays 1pm-6pm. Call anytime—Cheryl 620-388-2084 or write sylvialibrary@hotmail.com

ANOTHER EXAMPLE OF WHY OUR SMALL TOWN IS GREAT

The city of Sylvia received a write up in the Hutchinson Community Foundation Newsletter. We are looking forward to next spring.

“The success [of the garden] has just ballooned into something we couldn't have thought of before. We're excited to see what the future holds.”
TINA ROELFS, City of Sylvia

Growing community in Sylvia

Thanks to the investment by passionate volunteers, a project in Sylvia is bearing fruit not only for the town's community garden but also for resident pride.

In the spring of 2024, a few residents started a community garden of five raised beds to benefit the Sylvia community. This produce was harvested and placed in the city office and library for residents. Because of the success and appreciation of the residents, the Sylvia Helping Hands group turned to a Fund for Reno County Grant to increase the size of the garden this summer.
