Sylvia Helping Hands organization is working with K-State Extension office to conduct a survey to be used for city projects. Your input matters! Taking surveys is an impactful way to make your voice heard and contribute to shaping decisions that may affect your community. Surveys are vital tools for gathering diverse perspectives and insights, allowing decision-makers to understand public opinion and preferences. By participating, you not only express your own views but also help create a more comprehensive picture of the collective mindset. Your feedback can lead to improvements, innovations, and changes that reflect the needs and desires of the community. So, seize this opportunity to share your thoughts and make a difference. As the last full month of winter, February carries the promise of spring, encouraging everyone to look towards the future with optimism.

Exciting developments are underway in downtown as a new business prepares to open its doors, bringing fresh opportunities and vibrant energy to the area. Studio 11, a promising venture that is set to offer innovative services or products, though specific details are yet to be disclosed.

Alongside this, Oasis Restaurant is also gearing up for its grand opening, promising a delightful culinary experience that is sure to attract food enthusiasts and casual diners alike. These new establishments are expected to enhance our town by offering diverse options for both locals and visitors. As anticipation builds, more details are eagerly awaited, promising to reveal the unique offerings that these businesses will bring to the community.

Sylvia church of Christ

The Sylvia church of Christ is a non-denominational church that meets at the corner of S. Thompson St. And E. Ave. E in Sylvia. The local congregation began meeting over a century ago, in the early 1900's. The Bible is "the beginning place" in and through which we achieve spiritual oneness. Striving to follow the examples of the New Testament Church, members recognize no written creed or confession of faith other than the Scriptures.

We would like to invite you to be our guest for the Sunday morning bible study which begins at 10:00 AM, with worship service starting at 11:00 AM. We look forward to seeing you!

Foot Clinic Mark Your Calendar March 5th

The Reno County foot clinic at the Sunflower Center is slated for March 5th, and it's a fantastic opportunity for those interested in foot health. The clinic is designed to provide valuable insights and care, perfect for individuals dealing with foot-related issues or simply looking to improve their overall foot health. For just $20, attendees can benefit from professional advice and treatments. However, the clinic requires at least four participants to sign up. Appointments are available every half hour starting at 9:00. Last available would be at 10:30. If you or someone you know could benefit from this clinic, consider registering with the city office soon to secure a spot and help meet the necessary minimum attendance.
